

NECRO

Necro a hardcore hip-hop artist, he's extreme, he sometimes vulgar and down right talented.

He is a rapper, a producer, a film director and CEO of his own company Psycho+Logical-Records. Necro was born in raised in the heart of Brooklyn, where he first picked up the guitar and progressed in to hip-hop. Now a days he is on the fore front of the horror core rap scene, with his latest release Brutality Part1 he has set the stage to climb to the top, conquer and destroy the underground hip hop scene

First off, how would you describe Necro's sound and image?

The brutal shit, all rugged, ill beats on another level, very original and extreme music, my image is thugged out cuz I'm from the streets of Brooklyn, New York and lived that You've have made quite respectable a name for yourself as an independent artist. You have you work distributed all over the country too. Do you have any desire to work for a big label?

Work for a big label, yes, my label, I'm gonna make Psycho+Logical-Records a huge label, I'm not anybody else's worker unless it's for myself, I'm a pimp, not a whore

What would you say is the biggest influence on you as far as your writing?

As far as my writing, I would say my mentality is my biggest influence, the way I see things and the way I feel hip-hop sucks for years now, it inspires me to make what I make

You have done some of the coolest videos i have ever seen can you tell us about the "white slavery" video among others?

White slavery was some bondage in the dungeon shit, i like to just run with ideas that pop in my head, so I ran with that cuz I was filming a bondage scene for my porno already, why bondage? Don't ask, i just wanted to fuck with it to see how it would come out and then i decided to do a video for white slavery because it fit the song well, it would have been real hard to show you white slavery as far as a trade, so i gave you the scenario in an obscure bondage way which was original to prior videos in hip-hop, my I need drugs video was the last one I did before this and had 2 crack heads smoking crack and shooting dope in a crack hotel, some real serious shit

Can you tell us a little about Necro as Sexpert in the sexy sluts video?

I just decided to make a porno, I go by the Sexpert when i do porn, i have many aliases, so the porn came about because I wanted to hit the fans with something hardcore, I heard their cries and i delivered, penthouse pet taking it in her fucking crap box, she bled from her ass, and its hosted by the legend jerry butler who takes a verbal crap all over the porn industry

Is there any group or mc that just blows you away? No

Do you have any advice for new or upcoming musicians?

Yeah quit now, unless you are planning to be original, and if you are thinking of rapping soft, we don't wanna hear it, stop now, grab a gun, and blow ya brains out

You have the newest album brutality part 1, what's next for Necro?

Next is my plan for 2004 which consists of my label dropping more new shit than ever in a years time, including a new Necro CD.

Anything you want to tell all our readers.

Yeah I wanna tell your readers to go to www.necrohiphop.com or else Buy everything u see there and if u don't i will not talk to you anymore See ya.
